

History

What's Happening Now is a dynamic radio talk show that was birthed in the mid 90's. The inception was inspired out of a need to inform the public about news and views on various issues and events that were happening in the Northeast Louisiana Region. The talk show which is hosted by its founder, Bishop Alvin Walker, covers a variety of topics, such as; financial management, home ownership, economic development, religion, entrepreneurship, youth services, community events, and more. With the assistance of a highly motivated staff, WHN is supplying the public with valuable knowledge that will help them make informed decisions.
